

NOTES

Ecclesiastes 3:1-8 (NIV) -

There is a time for everything, and a season for every activity under the heavens:
a time to be born and a time to die,
a time to plant and a time to uproot,
a time to kill and a time to heal,
a time to tear down and a time to build,
a time to weep and a time to laugh,
a time to mourn and a time to dance,
a time to scatter stones and a time to gather them,
a time to embrace and a time to refrain from embracing,
a time to search and a time to give up,
a time to keep and a time to throw away,
a time to tear and a time to mend,
a time to be silent and a time to speak,
a time to love and a time to hate,
a time for war and a time for peace.

God has identified life's purposes based on seasons.
He wants you to be fully in the season,
and when the season is over, move on!

God's seasons for your life have a providential purpose.
(Psalm 31:15)

God's seasons for your life include pleasure and pain.

Enjoy the season you are in. It will not come around again.

Life is temporal; death is inevitable, and eternity is undeniable.

For anything new to start in your life, old things have to end.
(2 Corinthians 5:17)
