

FROM FEAR TO FAITH
Joining the Mission God Has Already Started

Genesis 12:1-3 (NIV) - The Lord had said to Abram, “Go from your country, your people and your father’s household to the land I will show you. I will make you into a great nation, and I will bless you; I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you I will curse; and all peoples on earth will be blessed through you.”

Faith begins before understanding.

Genesis 12:10-13 (NIV) - Now there was a famine in the land, and Abram went down to Egypt to live there for a while because the famine was severe. As he was about to enter Egypt, he said to his wife Sarai, “I know what a beautiful woman you are. When the Egyptians see you, they will say, ‘This is his wife.’ Then they will kill me but will let you live. Say you are my sister, so that I will be treated well for your sake and my life will be spared because of you.”

Fear destroys our ability to participate in God’s mission.

The mission belongs to God.

He wants us to embody His mission.

You’re not introducing God to someone who has never encountered Him.
You’re joining a conversation that God has already started.

The first mission field is us.

Who from another culture has God already placed in my life?

What conversation have I avoided because of fear?

How is God inviting me to become more like Christ
before asking me to do more for Christ?
